6. Why do you want to teach at BGCA?

Characteristics of Professional Excellence-Bowling Green Christian Academy

Therefore, my dear brothers, stand firm. Let nothing move you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord, because you know that your labor in the Lord is not in vain." 1 Corinthians 15:58 The faculty and staff of Bowling Green Christian Academy commit to these characteristics as the foundation of our effort to glorify God through the serving our students, parents, colleagues, and school.

Spiritual Growth

I dedicate myself daily, to spiritual growth and development, to be a light unto the world and an example to my students; I will adhere to Biblical standards not only as an act of worship but as a way of showing my commitment to Christian Education, loving the Lord with all my heart, soul, and might. (Deuteronomy 6:5)

Professional Growth

I will commit to lifelong professional growth and development, continually seeking opportunities to improve my teaching and skills in service to the BGCA family. (2 Timothy 2:15)

Goal Setting and Maintaining Standards

I set and support clear and appropriately challenging standards for spiritual growth, academic performance and appropriate behavior of the student. Each student will be familiar with these expectations and will be confident that they will be held to these standards. (Prov.3:5-6)

Real-Life Applications

I strive to relate all of my lessons to real-life conditions and events, to help students make the connection between "head-knowledge" and "heart-knowledge," the distinction between subjects we are studying and the world they observe and experience outside the classroom. (James 1:22)

Commitment to Partnership

I aim to have meaningful, healthy and supportive interaction with the BGCA family both in and out of the school setting, without crossing privacy boundaries, so that we can support each other in the most biblical, vibrant, professionally appropriate ways possible. (Ephesians4:2)

Commitment to Ministry

I will strive to promote, in words and actions, the spiritual and academic missions of this institution so that the goals may become realized in those with which we partner. (Philippians 3:14)

Engaging and Supportive

Because we are all made in God's image, we work to relate within the BGCA family in carrying out our covenantal relationship in body, mind and spirit in both our in and out-of-school lives, so that we can support and encourage each other in the most godly, vibrant and professionally appropriate ways possible. (1 Thessalonians 5:11)

Professional Courtesy

As a member of the BGCA community and the body of Christ, I desire to contribute regularly to a positive and supportive environment through prayer and sharing knowledge, resources, insight and aid freely, openly and energetically and always be open to receiving the same from my fellow teachers and staff members- all to the glory of God. (Titus 2:7 & 8a)

Enthusiasm

I will exhibit self-motivation, energy and a passion for teaching and learning, inspiring similar enthusiasm in all my students, so that they may become lifelong learners, seekers, servants, and innovators. (Colossians 3:23)

Commitment to Mission

I will strive to promote the BGCA mission, "To provide students a Christian education that encourages commitment to Jesus Christ, academic excellence, high moral character, and service to others." (Colossians 2:2-3)

Response to the Characteristics of Professional Excellence. Please Check

I am committed to and supportive of the Characteristics of Professional Excellence as a means to glorify God through serving the BGCA students, parents, colleagues, and school.

I am willing to support my colleagues as we grow together in professional excellence at BGCA.

I am willing to be teachable and supported so that I can grow in my professional excellence and contribute to a culture committed to the mission of the school.

I recognize that our team of professionals includes people inside the classroom and those that are not in the classroom. Even though a couple of the characteristics sound classroom teacher specific, it does take the entire team to support the function of the classroom.

BOWLING GREEN CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

Bowling Green Christian Academy does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, national or ethnic origin, age or disability regarding any of its employment practices or any of its programs.

THE VISION OF BOWLING GREEN CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

The vision of Bowling Green Christian Academy is to be an educational institution which sets the standard for excellence in Christian education in the South Central Kentucky region. Our goal is to graduate students who are well prepared for further training or higher education, who are able to think biblically about life, and whose spiritual maturity informs their character, conduct, and commitment of service to others. This will be accomplished by continuing to advance excellent instruction and programs based on biblical truth, by providing facilities which meet the needs of current programs and allow for future growth, and by maintaining fiscal soundness through responsible stewardship of resources and implementation of a comprehensive development plan.

ACCREDITATION

Bowling Green Christian Academy is accredited by the Association of Christian Schools International. Founded in 1978, ACSI has over 2,750 member schools, representing nearly 1,000,000 Christian day-school students. Membership provides many practical resources such as professional development conferences for teachers, accreditation and certification opportunities, student activities, publications, listings in national directory, and insurance programs. Accreditation was originally awarded for grades K-8 in December of 2001. BGCA is currently accredited through ACSI and AdvancEd for K-12th grades.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

The basis of Bowling Green Christian Academy shall be the Word of God as interpreted by the following statement of faith:

WE BELIEVE the Bible to be the inspired, the only infallible, authoritative, inerrant Word of God. (II Timothy 3:15; II Peter 1:21).

WE BELIEVE there is only one God, eternally existent in three persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. (Genesis 1:1; Matthew 28:19; John 10:30).

WE BELIEVE in the deity of Christ (John 10:33); His virgin birth (Isaiah 7:14; Matthew 1:23; Luke 1:35), His sinless life (Hebrews 4:15, 7:26), His miracles (John 2:11), His vicarious and atoning death (I Corinthians 15:3; Ephesians 1:7; Hebrews 2:9); His resurrection (John 11:25; I Corinthians 15:4), His ascension to the right hand of the Father (Mark 16:19), His personal return in power and glory (Acts 1:11; Revelation 19:11).

WE BELIEVE in the absolute necessity of regeneration by the Holy Spirit for salvation because of the exceeding sinfulness of human nature and that men are justified on the single ground of faith in the shed blood of Christ and that only by God's grace and through faith alone are we saved (John 3:16-21, 5:24; Romans 3:23, 5:8-10; Titus 3:5).

WE BELIEVE in the resurrection of both the saved and the lost; they that are saved unto resurrection of life and they that are lost unto the resurrection of damnation (John 5:28-29).

WE BELIEVE in the spiritual unity of believers in our Lord Jesus Christ (Romans 8:9; I Corinthians 12:12-13; Galatians 3:26-28).

WE BELIEVE in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit, by whose indwelling the Christian is enabled to live a godly life (Romans 8:13-14; I Corinthians 3:16, 6:19-20; Ephesians 4:30, 5:18).

BOWLING GREEN CHRISTIAN ACADEMY

STATEMENT OF EDUCATIONAL PHILOSOPHY

Bowling Green Christian Academy's philosophy is based upon the biblical command found in Proverbs 22:6, "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it." The academy recognizes that parents have the primary responsibility for the nurture and instruction of their children (Deuteronomy 6:5-7). Therefore, the home, the local church, and the school form a partnership in guiding the child's educational development in the spiritual, mental, emotional, social and physical realms (Luke 2:52). BGCA is dedicated to the education of the whole person in the whole counsel of God as revealed in both the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments. Because every child is called to exercise dominion over the rest of creation as a priceless image-bearer of God, we seek to provide a positive, Christ-centered learning environment for all students (Genesis 1:26-27, and Colossians 2:3).

Because man was created a spiritual being whose chief purpose in life is to glorify God and enjoy Him forever, BGCA is committed to leading each student into a vital, personal relationship with Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior and to train each student to serve Christ in every area of life. Such service will encompass family, church, nation, and world.

Because man was created a rational being, BGCA is committed to teaching and training students "to think God's thoughts after Him," and to "bring every thought captive to the obedience of Christ." These goals will be accomplished by comprehensively integrating Biblical teachings into every academic discipline and by assisting the student to acquire a mastery of the Scriptures and to apply these teachings to every discipline.

Through rigorous and comprehensive academic programs and extracurricular activities, students will be prepared to fulfill their calling as they take their place in the home, the church, and the world and as they determine their vocation or profession.

Teachers will seek to develop within each student an inquiring mind and a mastery of the necessary skills needed to apply his or her knowledge in service to both God and man. Because learning is a life-long process, the educational program at Bowling Green Christian Academy seeks to foster in students a love of learning and a desire to know God more fully as He has revealed Himself in both nature and the Scriptures.

Because man was created an emotional being, BGCA is committed to developing within students an emotional and psychological wholeness as reflected by appropriate self-assessment. This goal means that students are taught to recognize the unique capabilities and limitations with which they have been endowed by their Creator. Students are also taught to respond Biblically in their actions and interactions with others in the diverse circumstances of life. Students are also taught to be obedient to the two greatest commandments set forth by Christ:

“LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND...(AND) LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF.” (Matt. 22:37, 39 NIV)

Because God created man a physical being, his body forms a part of his essence and is a gift from God. Therefore, the body is not to be rejected, nor is it to be worshipped. Rather, the Christian's duty is to understand, care for, and develop the body in discipline. The body of the Christian is the dwelling place of God's Holy Spirit. As such, it is to be offered up to God for His use.

The educational program at BGCA is dedicated to doing all things for the glory of God. Therefore, BGCA will strive to promote excellence in all parts of the school program and in student performance. All members of the staff and student body will be expected to perform their responsibilities to the best of their God-given abilities.

The aim of BGCA is to achieve excellence throughout the educational program.
